UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

PRO SE OFFICE

DASHAWN HAWKINS,
Petitioner,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent.

19 Civ. 867 (GHW)
16 Cr. 691 (GHW)

REQUEST TO SUPPLEMENT
TITLE 28 U.S.C. § 2255 MOTION

COMES NOW, Petitioner, Dashawn Hawkins, pro se, and files this Request to Supplement his Title 28 U.S.C. § 2255 Motion, according to Civil Procedure Rule 15, in relation back to his original claims. Petitioner is a layman of the law, unskilled in the law, and, due to the COVID-19 prison lockdown, he has no access to applicable case law or Court Rules. Therefore, Petitioner asks that this Request be construed liberally. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972).

Petitioner does not present a new claim in this Request to Supplement. Petitioner recently discovered additional case law and information about the drug Diphenhydramine that supports his original claim: that the drugs distributed to Cameron, the victim, was not independently sufficient cause of death, because the drugs use was not the but-for cause.

CONCLUSION

The drugs distributed by Petitioner is not independently sufficient cause of the victims death and Petitioner can not be held liable under 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(C) unless such use is a but-for cause of death. Counsel was ineffective, in violation of the Sixth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, and granting this Request to Supplement would allow Petitioner to further support his original claim in his Title 28 U.S.C. § 2255 Motion.
